Rimon Farris, a rich Sime farmer's son, has a golden future: all he has to do is marry his childhood sweetheart, Kadi, and he's set for life. But Kadi matures into a Gen, as one-third of the human children do, randomly; and suddenly is considered no more than a food animal, a thing to be killed and harvested.

The couple refuse to accept their fate, and flee to a strange hybrid community. There they set in motion the greatest social engineering experiment in human history. If it succeeds, Simes will finally be able to live peacefully in a symbiotic relationship with the Gens. But if it fails, all will be lost...

Jean Lorrhah is a professional writer, the author of fifteen published science fiction and fantasy novels as well as a few short stories. Writing first fan fiction and later Sime~Gen, (Jacqueline Lichtenberg's universe.) Jean eventually went on to write her own Savage Empire series. (See information below). She has also written several Star Trek novels!

"The same as last month
for me. One you've raised.
That boy didn't get scared
until... until I hurt him.
I'm not going to hurt this one."
