

Donate a Story to Charity

- Get new readers
- Get free publicity
- Do a Good Deed
- Link to your site

Here's how it works

- ✓ Sime~Gen Sime Center finds worthy individuals and causes and has a private detective investigate to be sure it's legit.
- ✓ Professional writers and artists donate stories and art for 1 month posting on the web.
- ✓ Readers send the charity money via PAYPAL directly to the charity. Sime~Gen never handles a penny. It all goes to the charity. Our costs are our donation.

Here's how to donate a story

Go to <http://www.simegen.com/simecenter/links/contribute.html>

Read the writer's qualifications and if you like the recipient qualifications – you may suggest a new recipient you would like to sponsor with your story or artwork. Clarion Writers' Workshop is a recipient and donator of stories.

Follow the directions on that page and email the required information to charities@simegen.com . An electronic copy of the story or art will be required for posting.
